

PROGRESSIO

SPEAKERS AND SPEAKER TOPICS

Progressio has a number of extremely knowledgeable and passionate staff, committed to development and keen to spread the word about our work.

To book any of these speakers on the following topics (or possibly others by arrangement), please contact Daniel Hale on 0207 288 8617 or daniel@progressio.org.uk Conditions apply.

Name (Role)	Title
Belisario Nieto (Learning Manager)	People powered development: what it really means
Christine Allen (Executive Director)	Progressio at 70: Catholic social teaching and the struggle for a better world A new kind of sovereignty: food, rights and sustainability Prayer alone is not enough: HIV, faith and development Governance, participation and why it matters
Daniel Hale (Campaigns Officer)	Catholic social teaching and Benedict XVI: what he really thinks Catholic campaigning: the Church as a force for good
Lizzette Robleto (Policy and Advocacy Officer Latin America and the Caribbean)	The timber trade: illegal logging and its worldwide effects Latin America and the Caribbean: social, political and historical perspectives Shared futures: Haiti, the Dominican Republic and bi-national relations Trade and fairtrade: the best chance for a better future? Law and development Gender trouble: gender inequality and development Corridors of power: UK and EU political and legal frameworks
Petra Kjell (Environment Policy and Advocacy Officer)	Gender and water as a human right Water and climate change: the hidden links Importing Virtual water and poverty
Steve Kibble (Policy and Advocacy Officer Africa, Middle East and Asia)	Zimbabwe: what happened and what next? Somaliland and the promise of fragile states Timor Leste: if you want peace, work for justice
Tim Aldred (Policy and Communications Manager)	Fragile states, not fragile people: the Coalition and development